

The World Trade Statistical Review

The World Trade Statistical Review provides a detailed analysis of the latest developments in world trade. It is produced on an annual basis and replaces International Trade Statistics, the WTO's former annual statistical publication. The International Trade Statistics for 2001 – 2015 is available here.

The World Trade Statistical Review for 2016 is available here.